

Rajasthan Knowledge Corporation has developed a computer training programme for learners of all ages to make them computer literate. This is a very useful programme for the beginners and provides sufficient practical training on computer. The learners may get themselves registered at the Gyan Kendras of RKCL. After training, an examination is conducted by the Vardhaman Mahaveer Open University at the select examination centres and a certificate is awarded to the successful candidates.

RS-CIT - Rajasthan State Certificate in Information Technology is an approved programme by Department of Information Technology and Communication, Government of Rajasthan.

Objectives :

- For increased employability both in the public and private sector.
- For becoming Computer and IT savvy.
- For getting access to internet based information and knowledge.
- For improving personal work efficiency.
- For better negotiating in emerging digital work environment.

Eligibility :

- Anybody who has keen desire to learn Computers and Information Technology.

Duration : 13 Weeks (132 hours)

Medium : Course Material is Available Hindi & English

Fee : Rs. 2300 to be paid to RKCL

Programme Structure :

Highly illustrative book on Computing Essentials will be provided to learners.

The examination will be conducted online at different examination centres of the state by Vardhaman Mahaveer Open University, Kota and the university will issue certificate to the successful candidates.

Note : The other details of this programme are available on the website of RKCL i.e. www.rkcl.in. The students who wish to take admission in this programme are advised to contact RKCL IT Gyan Kendras.

